

290 Highway 101, Florence, OR 97439 | FlorenceChamber.com | 541-997-3128

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: July 14, 2025
president/CEO

Contact: Bettina Hannigan,

The 2025 Florence Community-wide Garage Sale Returns September 12–14

A Bargain Hunter's Dream in Oregon's Coastal Playground

Make room in your trunk and bring your best price-haggling, treasure-hunting spirit—Florence's Community-wide Garage Sale is back September 12–14, 2025, and it's better than ever!

This beloved tradition will once again transform the town into a bargain hunter's paradise, drawing savvy shoppers and curious explorers from up to 100 miles away.

"This is one of our biggest and favorite events of the year," says Bettina Hannigan, president and CEO of the Florence Area Chamber of Commerce. "For nearly a dozen years, this event has attracted deal-seekers from all over the Northwest who love the hunt for great bargains and a coastal getaway. Whether you're searching for retro finds, home goods, clothes, tools, toys, or handmade treasures, Florence's Community-wide Garage Sale promises surprises at every turn."

Scores of homes, neighborhoods, gated communities, pop-up markets, retail shops, and nonprofits will bring the goods—each one offering unbeatable deals, unexpected finds, and one-of-a-kind curiosities. Shoppers can grab an official Garage Sale Map & Guide starting in early September—complete with a short description for each sale site at the Florence Area Chamber of Commerce Visitor's Center and Gallery (290 Highway 101), or under the Events tab at FlorenceFun.com.

"This is more than just a garage sale weekend," says Hannigan. "It's a full-scale treasure-hunting adventure in one of Oregon's most beautiful destinations."

Florence offers more than shopping: after scoring deals, visitors can enjoy serene, uncrowded beaches, scenic dunes, pristine lakes, lush forests, and plenty of family-friendly recreation—from golfing and horseback riding to sandboarding and beachcombing. And don't forget Florence's famous food scene—chowder, seafood, and an ever-growing arts and culture vibe.

"This is a great chance to squeeze in one more memorable trip to the coast before school routines fully take over your life," Hannigan adds. "Come for the bargains, stay for the natural beauty, the chowder, and the charm of Old Town. And be sure to take time to enjoy our other attractions and adventures."

Discover more about Florence, Oregon's Coastal Playground, at FlorenceFun.com.

Pro tips for shoppers:

- Book a hotel room or vacation home ahead of time. Find suggestions at FlorenceFun.com.
- Highlight your map route and pick up a meal to-go before heading out.
- Bring cash in coins and small bills with shopping bags, boxes, and water—make this an all-day adventure!
- Hit the retail areas along Highway 101 and the shops and galleries of Historic Old Town for rare finds and surprising discounts.
- Think of this weekend as your very own episode of American Pickers—Florence-style!