

West Lane COAD – Invitation to 1st Conversation

You're invited to join the West Lane Community Organizations Active in Disaster (COAD) for a regional conversation focused on strengthening collaboration, preparedness, and community resilience across the Siuslaw/West Lane area.

This meeting brings together partners from our past COAD sessions as well as new organizations interested in supporting disaster preparedness, response, and recovery.

Date: October 14, 2026

Time: 12:30 pm – 2:00 pm with open networking space afterward

Location: Bromley Room, Siuslaw Public Library, 1460 9th Street, Florence, Oregon, 97439

Who should attend:

All community organizations, service providers, government partners, nonprofits, volunteer groups, emergency resource providers, and neighborhood-based teams interested in building a connected, coordinated approach to community readiness.

Meeting Agenda

- Welcome, introductions: who you are and what you do
- Overview of Lane COAD and the vision for West Lane Chapter
- Discussion: identifying volunteer leaders for chapter roles
 - Outreach
 - Volunteer coordination
 - Training
 - Partner fundraising coordination
 - Additional roles as needed
- Next steps and first action items for identified roles
- Brainstorm: fun and engaging community events encouraging evacuation-site practice
- Gap analysis: who is missing from the room that should be invited?
- Future meeting locations & schedule

A registration link for “West Lane COAD Conversation (1st Meeting)” is here:

https://orvid.oregon.gov/need/detail/?need_id=1314134

Please feel free to forward this invitation to any partners who should be included.